

Mississippi Course Redesign Initiative
The Mississippi Institutions of Higher Learning
Workshop I: An Orientation to Course Redesign
November 15, 2007
Jackson, MS

10:00 – 10:15 Welcome – Sponsor Representatives

10:15 – 11:15 Course Redesign Overview – Carol Twigg
Provides an overview of NCAT's course redesign methodology, including examples of the Five Models of Course Redesign.

11:15 – 11:30 Break

11:30 – 12:45 Five Principles of Successful Course Redesign – Carolyn Jarmon
Engages participants in an interactive discussion of the Five Principles.

Materials

- Five Principles of Successful Course Redesign

12:45 – 1:45 Lunch

1:45 – 3:15 Getting Ready for Course Redesign – Carolyn Jarmon

Engages participants in an interactive discussion of the quality and cost planning tasks associated with redesign, including selecting the appropriate redesign model, assessing the impact of redesign on student learning and saving resources through redesign.

Materials

- Readiness Criteria
- Five Models for Course Redesign Summary
- Five Models for Assessing Student Learning
- Cost Reduction Strategies

3:15 – 3:30 Break

3:30 – 4:00 What's Next – Carol Twigg
Discusses next steps in the grant application process and provides an overview of NCAT's Planning Resources that support course redesign.

Materials

- Application Guidelines
- Homework for Workshop II
- Course Planning Tool (CPT)
- Course Redesign Planning Resources